NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863.

The New-York Tribune, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second years, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, 1862 is as follows:

Daily	50,125
Semi-Weekly	17,250
Weekly	148,000
Aggregate	215,375

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word Republican. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall, indeed be, "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

The Tribune devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

A Father Rescues his Daughter from the Clutches of a Rebel Exile---Exciting Chase.

The Nashville Union, of the 15th inst., has the following:

An exciting scene was witnessed on Cherry street, at the residence of Dr. Buchanan, yesterday, a few doors below the Post Office, which deserves to be recorded. Dr. Buchanan, a most malignant traitor, received his walking papers from the military authorities recently, and was preparing to go South yesterday, at the time of the "scene" above referred to. The last of the Penates had been stowed away in the vehicle, and among other chattles of the rebellious "Pangloss" was a very likely young woman, about sixteen years of age, whose complexion, like that of one of Portia's suitors, was "the shadowy livery of the burnished sun." The girl was sadly preparing to leave with her owner.

No friend was near, to rescue her from the clutches of one who had been deemed so faithless to his country that he was to be expelled from the society of the loyal. Who could tell what horrible fate awaited her in the slave pen—in the rice swamps—in the cottonfield, under the merciless lash of a brutal overseer? Just as the wagon was about to start, an old African, her father, approached with a heart as sad, no doubt, as Virginius, when he approached the tribunal of Appius Claudius, to take an eternal farewell of his daughter Virginia.—Trembling with emotion he begged permission to kiss his only child, and give her one fond and final embrace.—His request was granted, when he clasped her in his arms, and quick as thought with limbs as fleet as those of a mountain deer, he darted with his precious prize into an alley—through a back yard—into a door—and vanished? Pursuit was made by the enraged master, but in vain. The father had executed the emancipation proclamation, and cursed be he who shall say that his daughter shall ever fall into the hands of her rebel master.

An Iron Egg.

In Dresden there is an Iron egg, the history of which is something like this:

A young prince sent this iron egg to a lady to whom he was betrothed. She received it in her hand, and looked at it with disdain. In her indignation that he should send her such a gift, she cast it to the earth. When it touched the ground a spring cunningly hidden in the egg opened and silver yoke rolled out. She touched a secret spring in the yolk and a golden chicken was revealed; she touched a spring in the chicken and a crown was found within; she touched a spring in the crown and within it was a diamond wedding ring. There is a moral to the story.

Regulations of the Assessment of the Income Tax.

The assessor and assistant assessors of each collection district will assess the income tax, as on the first day of May next, upon every person residing within the district liable thereto.

Each person will be required to return his total income, so far specifying the sources from which it is derived as to enable the assistant assessor to decide what deductions shall be made therefrom.

Persons whose income does not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars, and who reside in the United States, will be subject to a duty of three per cent. on such portion thereof as is liable to taxation: Provided, however, That upon income derived from interest upon notes, bonds, or other securities of the United States, a duty of one and a half per cent. will be levied.

Persons whose income exceeds ten thousand dollars will be subject to a duty of five per cent. on the portion thereof subject in taxation: Provided, however, That upon income derived from interest upon notes, bonds, or other securities of the United States, a duty of one and a half per cent. will be levied.

Citizens of the United States residing abroad, and not in in the employment of the government of the United States, will be subject to a duty of five per cent. on the income of any property, securities or stocks owned in the United States, and not exempted from the income tax: Provided, however, That upon income derived from interest upon notes, bonds, or other securities of the United States, a duty of one and a half per cent will be levied.

Every farmer or planter will be required to make return of the value of the produce of his farm or plantation, without deduction for the labor or services of himself and his family, for any portion of such produce consumed by himself and family.

The following deduction will be made from the aggregate income of each person, and the tax assessed upon the remainder, viz:

State and local taxes assessed in the calender year preceding this assessment, to wit, from January 1, 1862, to December 31, 1863, inclusive

Salaries of officers, or payments to persons in the service or employment of the United States, from which a deduction of three per cent. has been made by the disbursing officers of the government.

Interest or dividends on stock, capital, or deposits in any bank, trust company or savings institution, insurance, railroad company or corporation, from which interest or dividends a duty of three per cent. shall have been deducted by the officers of such companies, corporations, or associations; interest from any bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness, of any railroad, or other corporation, from which a duty of three per cent. shall have been deducted by the officers of such company or corporation; and receipts derived from advertisements on which a duty shall have been assessed and paid.

Also, the sum of six hundred dollars, except in those cases where the whole or any part of said six hundred dollars shall have been deducted from the salaries or pay of officers or persons in the service or employment of the United States.

The amount actually paid for rent of any dwelling-house or estate which is the residence of the person assessed; and

The amount paid by any farmer or planter for hired labor and necessary repairs upon his farm or plantation, including the subsistence of the laborers.

Whenever the total income of any person exceeds ten thousand dollars, and deductions are made therefrom, upon the ground that a portion of such income has been subject to a three per cent. duty upon dividends or interest paid by companies, corporations, or associations, as before enumerated, such person will be subject to a tax of two per cent. additional upon so much of his income as may have been previous subjected to a duty of three per cent. by the officers of the companies, corporations, or associations before named.

Guardians and trustees, whether such trustees are so by virtue of their office, as executors, administrators, or other fiduciary capacity, are required to make return of the income belonging to minors or other persons which may be held in trust, as aforesaid, and the income tax will be assessed upon the amount returned, after deducting such sums as are exempted from the income tax as aforesaid: Provided, That the exemption of six hundred dollars, under section 90, of the excise law, shall not be allowed on account of any minor or other beneficiary of a trust, except upon the statement of the guardian or trustee, made under oath, that the minor or beneficiary has no other income from which the said amount of six hundred dollars may be exempted and deducted.

Whetever persons liable to assessment of income tax shall neglect or refuse to make the lists required by law, or when the lists made and tendered by such persons shall not be accepted by the assessor or assistant assessor as just and proper, it shall be the duty of such assessor to make lists for such persons according to the best information he can obtain. Persons so assessed may make oath or affirmation as to the amount of income and deduction therefrom agreeably to section 93.

Persons receiving rent may deduct therefrom the amount paid for necessary repairs, insurance, and interest on incumbrances upon such rented property. The cost of new structures, or improvements to buildings, shall not be deducted from income.

The tax must be levied upon all dividends declared prior to September 1, 1862, and upon six hundred dollars of all salaries of officers, or payments to persons in the civil, military, naval, or other service of the United States, for services rendered prior to said date, as such dividends and proportion of salaries were not subject to deduction or assessment.

Interest received from or due by trust companies, savings institutions, insurance, and railroad companies or associations, prior to the same date, must also be taxed.

Profits or dividends derived from, stock, shares, or property in gas, bridge, express, telegraph, steamboat, ferry-boat, manufacturing companies or corporations, or from the business usually done by such companies or corporations, are subject to income tax.

Interest paid by any person on incumbrances upon the dwelling-house or estate on which he resides, may be deducted from income; also his payments for necessary repairs.

Farm produce, which the producer has on hand on the 31st day of December, 1862 must be appraised at its market value on that day.

The income tax shall be included in the annual list, and appeals and other proceedings held as provided by law.

JOSEPH J. LEWIS.
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Interesting Speech of Col Grierson---His View of the South

At the public reception given to Colonel Grierson and his officers at New Orleans, on the 6th inst., the gallant Colonel, in response to an address of welcome by Mr. L. Madison Day, spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen: I did not need this demonstration to convince me of the high appreciation in which the people hold the services of my command. I accept this token; not because I think the services I have performed worthy of such high honors—thousands of others would have done the same—but because it is a heart offering from the Union people of this city to their brethren of the West.—The credit of the achievement is due to the men and officers under my command, who, endowed with fortitude, fought with bravery, and overcame every obstacle, and suffered every hardship and privation without murmuring.

"In passing through the Confederacy I have had a good opportunity to form a correct opinion of its strength. That strength has been over-estimated. They have neither the armies nor the resources we have given them credit for, and we have been greatly deceived in regard to the means and power of the rebels. Passing through their country (and the passage was not a very difficult one), I found thousands of good Union men, who are ready and anxions to return to their allegiance the moment they can do so with safety to themselves and families.—They will rally around the old flag, by scores, whenever our army advances. I could have brought away a thousand with me, who were anxious to come—men whom I found fugitives from their homes, hid in the swamps and forests, where they are hunted like wild beasts by the rebel conscripting officers with blood hounds Having visited them in their own homes, I have founded my belief upon what I heard and saw there, that the day is not far distant when we shall witness the downfall of the rebellion and the restoration of the Union as it was.

"Thanking you again, gentlemen, I can only assure you that we shall so act as to deserve your confidence, and show ourselves worthy the compliments you have so lavishly bestowed upon us in the Crescent City, and our highest aim shall be to merit your approbation, and maintain the honor and glory of our country."

The success of Grierson, justly remarks a cotemporary, shows not only what an active and dashing officer can execute with men of spirit equal to his own, but, also, his experience tells us, as Stoneman's did, hollow and empty is that which calls itself the "Souther Confederacy." When once he had pierced the slender cover, Col. Grierson rode down the whole length of the great State of Mississippi with a loss of but one man; and everywhere he found only Union men, misery, and weariness with the war which the rebel leaders forced on the country as card-shuffler forces a false card on his victims.

That a cavalry force should be able to ride a distance of eight hundred miles through the enemy's country, certainly shows that the country is pretty well emptied of its defenders, or that a great part of the population is favorable to our cause.

☞ An advertising chandler at Liverpool modestly says, that "without intending any disparagement to the sun, he may confidently assert that his octagonal spermaceti are the best lights ever invented."

Party Arrangement.

The call for the State Convention, which is to meet in this city on the first day of July, for the purpose of choosing candidates for Governor and Judge of the Supreme Court, is addressed to "the loyal citizens of Pennsylvania without distinction of party, who desire cordially to unite in sustaining the national and State administrations in their patriotic efforts to suppress a sectional and unholy rebellion against the unity of the Republic," and is in perfect harmony with our county call, published in its appropriate place, and of which we have already spoken in approbation.

In the present perilous crisis in our country's history, this form of a call is eminently right and proper; for the only question now before us is, Union or Disunion. This swallows up all other issues, and this is the only thing that truly loyal men care, comparatively speaking, anything about. It is therefore right that Union should be emblazened upon our banner, that it should be our watch word, our motto, our rallying cry, our means and our end, and that there should be union among the people for the sake of the Union. The claims of our country, which are paramount to those of party, require of us, while it is in peril, to lay aside our party distinctions and rally as one man to the support of the Government against its traitorous enemies, even though we may continue to differ for the time being as to minor issues.

The great heart of the American people beats instinctively, true to the Union; and but for the sophisms and false teachings of men who are resolved to uphold their party, even if in so doing they should subvert the government and shiver the Union to atoms, there would be no necessity for Union Leagues or Union parties. But we know there is a strange and sad necessity for both—just as much as there is for armies and for conscription laws. The great mass of those who profess to be Democrats would be as loyal as their Republican fellow-citizens, were it not for the pernicious teachings of their leaders When we say their leaders, we do not mean their ablest and best men, but we mean the men who have the control of the machinery of the party—low, sordid, heartless creatures, who would lay the country, bleeding dishonored, at the feet of traitors—who would rend the Union, and exchange the Constitution which bears the honored name of Washington for that which was concocted in a conclave of perjured and blood-stained traitors—if thereby they could save their party and climb into power and place.

In giving up a beloved party name for the sake of the country, the Republicans have only done their duty and attested the reality of their patriotism; and they would have been unworthy to bear a name so honored, so expressive of all that is most cherished by patriot hearts, had they refused to make the sacrifice. But in so doing they ignore no principle, they yield no truth, they relinquish no opinion; for, in this terrible crisis, all that is embraced in the more comprehensive term which they have laid aside is concentrated in the all-important term Union. When the ship of state is in danger of sinking, or is on fire, it is no time for discussion as to the disposition of the cargo, or the exact point of the compass to which it shall be steered; but all minds are, or ought to be, absorbed in the one question, how to save it from its immediate peril. This idea of salvation the word Union; for to maintain the Union implies the suppression of the rebellion, which, like a fire, is consuming us, or, like a mighty tempest, is threatening to break our ship to pieces and engulf it in fathomless ruin.

In the array of parties which this movement inaugurates, how will the country be divided? On the one side will be Union, together with all who go in for what is essential to the maintenance of the Union—a vigorous prosecution of the war, and a cordial, whole-hearted support of the Government in that paramount object. And who will be on the other? Of course those who maintain the opposition of all this—those who are in sympathy with the rebels—those who wish to surrender—those who are crying out for peace, although it should be at the price of dishonor and ruin—those who do what they can to embarrass the Government—those who will not fight for their country, and who chuckle at every disaster to its arms—those, in short, who are known everywhere by that rather rough term—copperheads—a class compared with whom the tories of the Revolution were honorable men. These, as a general rule, will be our party opponents this year.—Pitts. Gazette.

Wanted to Surrender. — The Wheeling Intelligencer says:—It is told as a fact that when the rebels were at Morgantown it was agreed in Waynesburg, Pa. that no defense of the place should be attempted, and moreover, that Jesse Lazear, M. C., and cashier of the bank there, went out eight miles with a flag of truce hunting somebody to surrender the town to, but found nobody after a long and diligent search. It is thought to be too bad that "poor Jesse" could find nobody to surrender the place to Let him report the facts to Congress

Vallandigham's Sentence.

In a general order, (Number 68,) dated "Headquarters Department of the Ohio, Cincinnati, O., May 16, 1863," General Burnside has published the finding of the Court Martial in the case C. L. Vallandigham—which is quite different from that reported in dispatches from Washington a few days ago.

The order commences thus:

1. At a military commission, which convened at Cincinnati, Ohio, on the 6th day of May 1863, pursuant to Special Orders No. 135 of April 21, 1863, current series, from these headquarters, and of which Brigadier General Robert B Potter, U. S. Volunteers, is President, was arraigned and tried, Clement L. Vallandigham, a citizen of the State of Ohio, on the following charge and specification of charge, to wit:

Here the order recites the charge and specification, which, as both have already appeared in our columns, we omit, and give the remaining portion of the sentence in full:

FINDING AND SENTENCE.

The Commission, after mature deliberation on the evidence adduced and the statement of the accused, find the accused, Clement L. Vallandigham, a citizen of the State of Ohio, as follows:

Of the specification, (except the words, "That propositions by which the Northern States could be won back, and the South guaranteed their rights under the Constitution, had been rejected the day before the battle of Fredericksburg, by Lincoln and his minions," meaning thereby the President of the United States and those under him in authority, and the words, "asserting that he firmly believed, as he asserted six months ago, that the men in power are attempting to establish a Despotism in this country, more cruel and more oppressive than ever existed before.") "Guilty."

And as to these words "Notguilty." Of the charge, "Guilty."

And the Commission do therefore sentence him; the said Clement L. Vallandighain, a citizen of the State of Ohio, to be placed in close confinement in some fortress of the United States, to be designated by the commanding officer of this Department, there to be kept during the continuance of the war.

2. The proceedings finding and sentence in the foregoing case are approved and confirmed, and it is directed that the place of confinement of the prisoner, Clement L. Vallandigham, in accordance with said sentence, be Fort Warren, Boston Harbor.

By command Maj.-Gen. Burnside
Lewis Richmond,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Coil Oil for Fruit Trees.

A gentlemen formerly connected with the coal oil business, says that several years ago, in taking a lot of sample bottles of coal oil on a journey for exhibition, accidentally had a bottle broken, saturating the sawdust in which the bottles were packed.—When he arrived at his stopping place he put the sawdust at the foot of a plum tree, it being about the time of blossoming of the plum trees. The result was watched, and it turned out that the circulio, which ravaged the other plum trees in the orchard, gave this one a wide berth, and the plums were saved to ripen.

This circumstance led to still further experiments, with like favorable results. The sawdust that saturated—which can be done with the cheapest kind of coal oil—retains the odor for a long time, which is quite offensive to the very fastidious tastes of this little pest. The borer, also, will not put his gimblet into the trunk of a tree which is encircled with this staff.

West Virginia Free from Rebel Soldiers.—Gen. Kelley telegraphs that the rebels have entirely disappeared from the line of the Parkersburg branch of Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and that they had retreated through the Cheat Mountains, and were again in the Valley of Virginia. It is stated that an immense number of horses and cattle were carried off by them, besides a large amount of provisions and forage, which they hauled in wagons seized from the farmers.

The True Plan.—A Dayton (Ohio) dispatch, in speaking of the damage done at the late copperhead riot, amounting to some $250,000, says that the "butternuts" concerned in the late riot are to be taxed, each equivalent to his means, until a sum is raised to defray the loss connected with their outrage, besides a term in the penitentiary.

All in the Trade.—"That was a severe coughing fit," remarked a humorous sexton to an undertaker, when they were taking a glass together,—"Oh, 'tis nothing save a little ale which went down the wrong way," replied the undertaker. "Ah, ah, that's just like you," said the sexton, "you always lay the coffin on the bier."

Tribute to the American Character.—The Hamilton (C. W.) Times, one of the best of the Liberal journals in Canada, pays a handsome tribute to the American character, in an article relative to the movement started in New York for the relief of the Lancashire sufferers. Alluding to the "almighty dollar" epithets which Englishmen and Canadians are so fond of applying to our people, it says;—

"We venture to assert, without fear of truthful contradiction, however, that they are, as a people, less miserly, less prone to worship the golden calf, than those nations from whence spring their accusers; and that they are more inclined to relieve the distressed, without regard to country or origin, and possess more of the genuine milk of human kindness, than almost any other people on earth. * * *

"That we are right, and doing but simple justice to a great and magnanimous people, when we ascribe to them the possession of so many noble characteristics, is proved by innumerable facts with which every intelligent man in Canada must be thoroughly familiar. * * *

"In what other nation, Asiatic or European, suffering all the horrors of a great civil war can inflict, could fifteen merchants be found to contribute $40,000 to relieve the suffering of a foreign people? We unhesitatingly answer, in none. We firmly believe that neither the British nor the Canadian public know anything of the American heart; for if they did our ears would be less frequently assailed in the public places, with jeers, and our eyes called to witness, in the newspaper press, the jibes against the despised 'Yankee.' We ask, what have the rich merchants of Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Quebec done towards thestarving Lancashire fellow subjects, compared with the fifteen generous, noble-hearted merchants of New York? This question is a sufficient answer to the whole tribe of libellers and traducers of American character."

More Rebel Barbarity.—The Columbus (Kentucky) War Eagle, of a recent date gives the following:—

"The victim was a Union man, named Jordon Hills, and lived on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, eighteen miles from Troy. On the 27th of March, Mr. Hills was taken by a party of men claiming to belong to Dawson's band of rebel guerillas; he was tied up and whipped, and afterward gagged, his ears and nose cut off, and three of his fingers amputated and carried away as trophies and souvenirs! Afterward, his skull was laid open with a sabre and his brains scattered and trampled upon by the murderers—and all because he was a Union man and not a traitor."

☞ In the town of ——, subject to the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin, lives a busy tailor, who at sundry times officiates as preacher.—In order to save a little printing, it is his custom to write his notice of preaching. Here is one of the latest:

"There will be preaching in the pines next Sunday afternoon on the subject—All who do not believe will be damned at three o'clock."

☞ "Sambo, do you know the difference between a mason and an anti-mason?"

"Yes, sar, I beleib I does."

"Well, what is it?"

"If my brain tell me de trut, and it neber fails, de mason is de man what lay de mortar, an de anti-manson de man what carries de hod!"

Queer Retort.—"Miss, will you take my arm?"

"Yes, sir, and you too."

"Can't spare but the arm, miss," replied the bachelor.

"Then," said she, "I can't do it, as my motto is, 'Go the whole hog or nothing.'"

The bachelor disappeared.

The Sentence of Vallandigham.

Clement L. Vallandigham has been sentenced by the President of the United States to be sent South in to the lines of the enemy. Notwithstanding the evident mildness of this disposition of this Traitor to his country, we find many sympathisers in the North—amongst them, of course, the Western Star—finding great fault with the Administration for this course.—But upon taking a calm and fair view of the subject, there is no point in which either Mr. Vallandigham or his supporters can find any valid objection to this course.

Mr. Vallandigham has always contended that, in this war, the North were the aggressors, that Jefferson Davis and his allies were battling for the Constitution and his sympathies were with them rather than with the Administration; therefore he can not but look upon it as fitting that he should be returned to his friends. He will now be with those whom he has always praised; he will be with his friend Davis, and can do all the good he can for the Southern Confederacy. There is no impropriety in thus sending out of this country, and consigning to Davis, all those who are more favorable to the success of the South than the North. Let the thing be done fairly. Let each party and each section have its own friends within its own confines. Those who are for Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy, should be sent into the Southern Confederacy to co-operate with their friends.

We observe that the Southern papers are lauding Vallandigham to the skies, and making much ado over his treatment. They can now have an opportunity of showing their appreciation of their Northern friends.—The Messrs. Wood, and others of that stripe, should also be sent off to Dixie, and we presume if they do not mend their ways that they soon will be;—the sooner the better.

No man can pretend with any fairness that those who are really opposed to the war at the present stage of the conflict, when all the energies of the nation are called forth to put down the rebellion, and when it is a case of either life or death to the Union, no man can, we say, pretend that opposition to the war is any thing but hostility to the country, and any apology for Vallandigham, or any expressions of sympathy in his case is but an indication of that hostility. The friends of the Government are not the friends of Vallandigham. His friends must be the friends of Davis; there is no half way about it.

The Administration is unjustly accused of harshness and tyranny in dealing with these enemies, and are told that "these misguided men should be let alone." Such pleas come with an ill grace from those who have been sympathising with the Government, and with much worse from those who have not been heartily with the Government in putting down the rebellion. The following, which we clip from the Pittsburg Dispatch, expresses our meaning fully upon this point:

"The able decision of Judge Leavitt, upon the application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of C. L. Vallandigham, will be read with satisfaction by every loyal man in the country. The copperhead conservatives have already divided the Law Judges of the North into two classes, one willing on all occasions to seize upon pretexts for hampering the Government in the execution of military law, and the other rather disposed to err in favor of, than against the exercise of necessary military powers.—The former class have been the recipients of much fulsome adulation, from "conservative" writers, the latter of much unwarranted virulence. The practice has become so decided, and so firmly established, that we have learned to expect a storm of malicious comment upon every such decision, and a failure of this sequence to Judge Leavitt's decision will exite more astonishment than the vilest attacks on his judicial reputation."

SENTENCED.—The colored man Wheeler, who was tried at Washington last week for killing a young man named Wells, at Burgettstown, last fall, resulted in the conviction of the defendant of murder in the second degree. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for [illegible]

☞THE news from the Army of the Potomac, during the past week, is quite meager. The return of the nine months' men, most of whom were with this army, has, it is said, considerably reduced the effective force under Gen. Hooker, and it is quite doubtful whether he will make another movement till reinforced. Meanwhile the army still continues to hold its old position at Falmouth.

Affairs in the South-west, however, look much more encouraging. Gen. Grant has captured Jackson, the Capital of the State of Mississippi, and defeated the rebel forces in a hotly contested battle between Jackson and Vicksburg. The railroads have been broken up, and a very large amount of rebel property has been destroyed.

The defeat of the rebels at Vicksburg and the capture of the city is reported, but nothing official has been received at Washington.

Affairs in Tennessee are pretty much the same as at last advices.—Rosecrans still holds his position, and Bragg is not strong enough to attack him.

Altogether the rebels have had the worst of it so far during the spring campaign. A vigorous prosecution of the advantages already gained would seem to be the best movement that the Administration could make.

Railroad Accident.

The Wellsville accommodation train, on Saturday evening, ran off the track near Courtney's station. Two of the cars were thrown partly over the steep bank, killing the brakesman, Mr. Wm. Ewing. He was thrown from the train some distance, his head striking the sharp edge of a rock, cutting off the entire top of his scull, killing him instantly. Several others were injured slightly. Mr. Blain, of Bridgewater, had one of his hands badly injured. On looking at the wreck we were amazed that there were not more killed and wounded. Three or four trains were delayed there for several hours

AT HOME.—Capt. John S. Littell, of the 78th Pa. Regiment, stationed in South Carolina, is now at home on furlough. The Captain looks as if though the Southern climate, and the life of a soldier, agreed with him. This is the first time he has been absent from his regiment, since entering the service about twenty-one months ago. He leaves for the South this week.

Capt. Thos. Henry, of the 140th Regiment, is also at home on furlough. He looks, too, as if "soldiering" agreed with him. He is considered one of the finest—although the youngest, we believe—officers in the Regiment. In the late battles on the Rappahannock he displayed great bravery and coolness while leading his men into action. We feel sure that "Tom" will never disgrace the "craft."

☞FROM a letter received from Sergeant John N. Frazier Company G, 168th Regiment Pa. Militia, we learn that our drafted men of this county are now lying at Washington, N. C. They have lost three men by death—James Leech of Hanover tp., Alex. B. Romigh and John Steinbach of New Sewickly tp. Sergt. F. gives many interesting particulars of the way things are in rebeldom, their markets, &c., which we are unable to publish for want of room. The following is an extract taken from the Henderson Times, representing, to some extent, the jealousies of Southern aristocrats:

"The Congressional election is approaching. Keep your eyes open.—Beware of the "fire eaters" of the winter of 1860–61. They are now, principally, "no party" men. They are the fag ends of the old, defunct Democratic party. They have fought most of their battles in bar-rooms or in the shade. They aided to precipitate the Cotton States into revolution, which have made a breast-work of Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Missouri. Let them be "anathema maranatha." Give them the reins of Government, and after peace they will quickly carry us to perdition. Let them be marked as deeply as Cain was. I would not trust them in politics as far as I could throw an ox by the tail."

☞"Costar's" Rat Exterminator is the simplest, safest, cheapest and sure remedy; the most perfect RAT-ification meeting we have ever attended. Every rat that can get it, properly prepared according to directions, will eat it, and every one that eats it will die, generally at some place as distant as possible from where the medicine was taken.—*Lake Shore (Mich.) The Barker Case.

The following, in regard to the Barker case, from this county, we clip from the Washington correspondence of the Pittsburg Dispatch:

WASHINGTON, PA., May 23d.—In a brief note yesterday morning I informed you that the Beaver county case would be taken up in the afternoon, the Wheeler homicide case having been concluded. In common with many others, witnesses, I had become almost wearied out in waiting for the case, and felt some relief at the expectation that it was reached at last, notwithstanding the prospect of our stay here being prolonged until next week.

I mentioned the fact that the commonwealth had asked the case to be put over until the next term in consequence of the absence of Mr. Bradshaw, Treasurer of Beaver co., an important witness. Mr. Bradshaw being advised that his wife was very ill, left for home. The defense strenuously resisted the motion, and finally consented that Mr. Bradshaw's deposition should be taken. Mr. Rutan, the Beaver county District Attorney, procured the deposition, but under the most distressing circumstances.—Mrs. Bradshaw died about an hour before her husband reached Beaver, and had been buried when Mr. Rutan reached there. He took down in writing Mr Bradshaw's evidence, and returned here with it on Friday afternoon, entering court in the midst of the argument on a motion by the defense to quash the indictment.

The indictment charged the defendants with being accessary to the murder of John Ansley after the fact, is drawn under the common law, and the offense charged as felony.

Counsel for defendants moved to quash the indictment, and filed their reasons as follows:

I. The indictment does not charge the fact that a murder has been committed by Eli F. Sheets.

II. The indictment does not declare the fact that the said Eli F. Sheets had been sentenced, nor that he was imprisoned under the charge

III. That the crime charged in the indictment is not indictable at common law since the statute of 1860; but it is indictable and punishable alone under that statute as a misdemeanor, and that the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Beaver county had no jurisdiction of the offence charged in the indictment.

The motion was argued by Messrs. Acheson and Montgomery for the motion, and Messrs. M'Kennan and Watson contra. This (Saturday) morning Judge Lindsay delivered an opinion overruling the motion, but indicating that if the proof should be upon the trial, as indicated during the argument that the defendants actually and not constructively assisted in the escape of the felon from prison, they could not be convicted upon the indictment Whereupon, the counsel for the Commonwealth consented that the indictment should be quashed, and it was accordingly quashed.

EXECUTED.—Wm. Corbin and T. B. McGraw, convicted and sentenced by court-martial in Cincinnati, were shot to death on Johnson's Island, Lake Erie. The execution party consisted of thirty-two men, divided into squads—half being a reserve. The firing was excellent, the sixteen shots, fired being as that of one man. The criminals fell back upon their coffins, each pierced through the breast, within a circle of a few inches, by twenty five balls and buckshot, and died without a struggle. Corbin did not move a muscle, McGraw gasping but once.—The bodies were then examined by Surgeons, and life found extinct. The troops were then marched past the bodies, the band playing the dead march; thence to the parade ground and dismissed.

The French Driven from Puebla

The North Star has arrived at New York from Aspinwall, with dates to the 16th. She has $260,000 in treasure. The steamer Constitution, from San Francisco, arrived at Panama on the 16th, Puebla dates of April 30th, stating that the French had been driven from Puebla at the point of the bayonet, the French losing 6,000 men. Also that the French would probably retire to the seaboard, as the rainy season had set in. The roads to Vera Cruz were in bad condition, and were infested with guerillas. The yellow fever was soon expected to break out.

HEAVY LOSS.—Rowand's cavalry left Wheeling a year and a half ago with one hundred men. Since that time twenty-two men have been recruited. The company now musters only twenty-two men for duty, all the rest having been lost to the service either by sickness, death or capture. The members have been placed upon the roll of honor, and each member has been presented with a medal as a reward of merit.

THE EXEMPTION CLAUSE.—Since Secretary Stanton's unofficial declarations, that he should construe the National Enrollment Act as if it did not contain the $300 exemption clause, have found their way into print and evoked so much discussion, the Secretary has grown cautious. He has recently said that he should decide the question when a case arose, an additional proof that nothing is yet determined.

PREPARING TO RE-ENTER THE UNION.—Gen. Banks expresses the expectation, in a private letter recently received in Washington, that Louisiana will soon be ready to enter the Union again, and this time as a free State.—He does not think that the difficulty of reorganizing civil institutions will be great after the military strength of the rebels shall have been broken, as it has been effectually in the Opelousas region.

FROM VICKSBURG.

Glorious Success of Grant---Five Battles Fought---Sixty-Four Guns and 9,400 Prisoners Taken---Vicksburg Closely Invested---Reported Capture of City.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The following dispatch was received by the President to-day:

Memphis, Tenn., May 23.—To Col. Anson Stager, Washington, D. C.: Official information from below to Wednesday has been received. Gen. Grant has captured Haines, Bluff and the entire works of Vicksburg, a large number of prisoners, and fifty-seven pieces of artillery. The battle is still raging, with every prospect of capturing the entire force in Vicksburg. We hold Jackson, Black river bridge and Haines' Bluff. A report is being made up for Washington.

W. G. FULLER,
Assistant Manager of Telegraph.

The following was received this morning at the headquarters of the army:

Memphis, Tenn, 11 a. m., May 21.—Maj. Gen. H W. Halleck, General-in-Chief: A citizen has arrived at Lagrange, who left Canton on Saturday morning. He reports that Johnston was at Calhoun, seventeen miles North of Jackson, with 6,000 men, endeavoring to effect a junction with Pemberton at Edward's station.

At Holly Springs he saw a dispatch from Canton, dated the 19th inst., as follows: Gen. Grant was reinforced, and drove the enemy into the entrenchments on the Big Black. Johnston has ordered all the previsions from Canton. The Pearl river bridge at Jackson and the trestle work at Brandon, were burned.

G. A. HURLBUT, Maj Gen.

Eleven o'clock, P. M.—The following dispatch has just been received at the War Department:

Memphis, Tenn., May 23.—I forward the following, which has just been received from Col. John A. Rawlins, A. A. G.: Rear of Vicksburg May 20.—We landed at Brunnsburg on the 30th April. On the 1st of May we fought the battle of Port Gibson, defeated the rebels under Bowen, whose loss in killed, wounded and prisoners was at least 1,500. Loss in artillery, five pieces. On the 12th of May, at the battle of Raymond, the rebels were defeated with a loss of 800. On the 14th, defeated Joseph E. Jonston and captured Jackson, with a loss to the enemy of 400, besides immense stores and manufactures and 17 pieces of artillery. On the 16th fought the bloody and decisive battle of Baker's Creek, in which the entire Vicksburg force, under Pemberton, was defeated, with a loss of 29 pieces of artillery, and 4,000 men. On the 17th, defeated the same force at Big Black Bridge, with a loss of 2,600 men and 17 pieces of artillery. On the 17th, invested Vicksburg closely. To-day Gen. Steele carried the rifle-pits on the north of the city. The right of the army rests on the Mississippi, above Vicksburg.

[Signed.] JOHN A. RAWLINS.

I learn further that there are from 15,000 to 20,000 men in Vicksburg, and that Pemberton lost nearly all his field artillery; that the cannonading at Vicksburg ceased about 3 o'clock on the 20th. Grant has probably captured nearly all.

G. A. HURLBUT, Maj. Gen.

Official Details of Battle of Black River.

MEMPHIS, TENN., May 23.—11:30 a. m.—Hon. Edward M. Stanton, Secretary of War: The following dispatch has been received at these headquarters and and forwarded as requested.

S. A. HURLBUT, Maj. Gen.

Rear of Vicksburg, May 20.—6 a. m.—Hon Edward M. Stanton, Secretary of War: Gen. Grant won a great and momentous victory over the rebels under Pemberton on the Jackson and Vicksburg Road, at Baker's Creek, on the 16th inst. Pemberton had a most formidable position on the crest of a wooded hill over which the road passes longitudinally. He had about twenty-five thousand men

The battle began at eleven a. m., and was gained at four, p. m. Its brunt was borne by Hovey's Division of McClernand's Corps, and Logan's and Crocker's, of McPherson's. Hovey attacked the hill and held the greater part of it till two o'clock, p. m., when, having lost sixteen hundred men, he was succeeded by Boomer's and Holmes' Brigades, of Crocker's Division, by which the conflict was ended in that part of the field. Boomer lost five hundred men.

Logan operated on the right, and cut off the enemy's direct retreat, so that he was compelled to escape by his right flank through the woods.—Logan lost four hundred killed and wounded. We took about two thousand prisoners.

On the 17th, advancing to the Big Black, we fought Pemberton again at the bridge and captured three thousand more prisoners. He fought in rifle pits, protected by a difficult bayou, full of abattis. Lawlo's brigade and M'Clernand's corps charged the rifle pits magnificent, and took more prisoners than their own numbers. Pemberton burned his bridge and returned to Vicksburg with only three cannon out of sixty that he had taken out.

Building four bridges over the Big Black, Gen. Grant arrived before the town on the evening of the 18th, and now holds it closely invested. He had opened a line of supplies via Chickasaw bayou, having cut the town off from Haines' Bluff, which is abandoned by the enemy, and which Gen. Grant will occupy.

There was sharp fighting through the day yesterday. Steele won and holds the upper bluffs, and the enemy's upper water batteries and gets water from the Mississippi. Sherman's corps lost yesterday five hundred killed and wounded. McPhersons, who holds the center, lost little, as did McClernand, who holds the left. The gunboats kept the enemy on the alert during the night and and probably the town will be carried to-day. There are from 15,000 to 20,000 men in it.

NEW YORK, May 24.—The Herald's special Washington dispatch says that advices had been received by the President from Gen Grant, detailing his proceedings to the 20th.—He had fought five battles, captured sixty-four guns and 9,400 prisoners.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 30th says, in relation to Vicksburg: "If some happy combination be not made between the forces under Pemberton and Johnson, the heroic city must fall."

The New York Times' army correspondence, dated yesterday, says that news was received from the enemy's lines, that Pemberton was defeated between Jackson and Vicksburg, with heavy loss in killed and wounded and 3,000 prisoners, as well as one division of his forces cut off and retreating in a southerly direction. Gen. Johnston attacked the Federal forces in Jackson, which retreated upon the main body. Pemberton also attacked Grant, but was whipped, and retreated upon Vicksburg. The above is said to be the contents of a dispatch from Gen. Pemberton to Gen. Lee

FROTRESS MONROE, May 24.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 22d contains the following dispatch:

Mobile, May 11.—In Saturday's fight, we lost thirty pieces of artillery, which were spiked and abandoned.—On Sunday the Federals advanced to take the Big Black bridge, but were repulsed. They crossed higher up and took us in the rear, when the bridge was burned and the works abandoned. The loss is heavy.—Vicksburg is closely besieged, the enemy is closing in on every side.

Vicksburg is Said to be Ours.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—At eleven o'clock, a. m., to-day, the President received the following telegraph announcement that Vicksburg is ours.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 24.—A dispatch from Mr. Fuller, the telegraph manager at Memphis, late last night, says the stars and stripes now float over Vicksburg, and the victory is complete. I have held this message hoping to get the confirmation, but the line has been interrupted, and I now give it to you as it reached me. I think the wire will be all right soon.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Up to 10 o'clock to-night the President had no further intelligence, excepting a telegram from Memphis, dated 4:30 P. M., saying there is nothing later yet than the morning report of the capture of Vicksburg.

From the facts already received, no doubt seems to be entertained in any quarter of the fall of Vicksburg.—The official confirmation, however, is awaited with anxiety. The rejoicing was general throughout the city to-day.

Navy Department has information that Admiral Porter has been co operating with Gen. Grant in the seige of Vicksburg. His fleet still cannonading the city and its works, still in the hands of the rebels, by night, while Grant's army assailed it by day, thus giving the rebels within the town and entrenchments not a moments relaxation from the perils of their situation. The same department also received official information that Admiral Farragut's fleet is actively bombarding Port Hudson.

☞It appears, says the Richmond Sentinel of May 20th, that almost everything has had an advancing tendency. The butchers, as predicted, have raised their prices. The superabundance of spring vegetables has no effect upon the charges. Eggs are 82 per dozen. Butter is beyond the reach of the masses, and young chickens soar so high that a man of moderate means dares not dream of ever gazing upon their like again. But some of these things, it is believed, must soon be lower.

BALTIMORE, May 25.—A letter from an officer aboard the U. S. steamer Hartford, dated the 12th of May, says she was still afloat, notwithstanding numerous rebel reports of her destruction and capture. He says they maintain their position at the mouth of Red River, in defiance of rebel threats.

DEFENDED AGAINST RAIDS.—The Richmond Examiner of the 21st says that the citizens are to be formed into companies for the defence of the city against Yankee raids, another of which will be attempted at once, as they think Richmond defenceless. All, without exemption, are to be organized and drilled in such manner as will not interfere with their regular business.

☞The Confederate Congress has passed a bill placing in service after the 1st of May, all citizens of the United States, including Marylanders or sojourners, residing in the Confederate States.

Major Gen. Heintzelman has issued an order directing that the farms on Arlington flats, near Washington, shall be cultivated by the labor of the contrabands who have for some time been supported at the public expense.

The raiders in Matthew and Gloucester counties, ordered by Gen Keyes, under Gen. Kilpatrick and Capt. Gillis, have returned. They were eminently successful, and brought back a large number of horses, mules, &c. It combined a land and water movement.

☞A government agent went out in a recent European steamer on business connected with the counterfeiting of United States notes in England

THE NEWS.

Richmond papers of Monday are unhappy over the capture of Jackson, Miss. They say an evacuation and retreat from Vicksburg or a pitched battle is a matter of immediate necessity. They call Grant's move a bold one, which must be made to cost him or the rebels very dearly. Though "affairs look ugly for us (Rebels) we have a general (Joe. Johnston) in whom all have confidence. We await intelligence with anxiety and strong hope." Another article represents the safety of Richmond as by no means assured, and urges the conscription of every able bodied male from 16 to 60 years of age for its defence. The Union forces at West Point and Hooker's late reinforcements are reasons for anxiety, and Yankee trickery and strategy are deplored.

Gen. Grant's official dispatch announcing the capture of Jackson is published. He says: "This place fell into our hands yesterday, after a fight of about three hours. Joe Johnston was in command. The enemy retreated North, evidently with the design of joining the Vicksburg forces.

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia yesterday pronounced a decree of total divorce in the case of Gen. John M. Brannan against Eliza Brannan, granting him the guardianship of his child. The material facts caused much excitement and interest five years ago, and especially in New York. It appears that Col. Wyman, with whom she eloped, was shot through the heart at the battle of Fair Oaks.

One of our letters from Norfolk says that a regiment of Rebels crossed the Rappahannock 15 miles below Falmouth on Saturday night, to protect the passage of sundry medical and other supplies from Baltimore for Confederate use. They are said to have taken eight prisoners from a scouting party of the 8th Pennsylvania Cavalry, and to have affected their purpose.

Gen. Milroy telegraphs from Winchester, Va., on Tuesday: My cavalry had a skirmish with the Rebel cavalry to day six miles from here.—We killed six, and captured seven.—No casualities on our side. My cavalry are still in pursuit.

A jury, after three days' deliberation in a divorce case, in Philadelphia, were discharged on Saturday last, unable to agree. There was evidently a great deal of bad feeling between the jurors, and finally one of them stated that if the case was tried again, it ought to be before a jury of all Catholics or all Protestants. The three jurors who refused to agree in the verdict allowing Mr. Siegfried a divorce were all Catholics; and as their church recognize marriage as a sacrament not to be disloyal, hence the opposition. The feeling had no reference to the parties themselves, for both libelant and respondent are Catholics.

It is rumored that Governor Curtin has tendered the President 20,000 militia to garrison the defences at Washington, Baltimore and some other points, and thereby relieve that number of disciplined soldiers, that they may be placed in the field. Secretary Stanton is said to have objected to receiving them, but it is said the President has concluded to accept them. This may obviate the necessity of a draft in the State, if accepted.

The 54th Massachusetts, or colored regiment, was last week presented with four regimental colors. The presentation speech was made by Gov. Andrew who said he was identified with the regiment, and would stand or fall with its history as a man and a magistrate.

Hon. P. P Spaulding presided at the Union League Convention on Wednesday last. It was addressed by the Hon Montgomery Blair, David Paul Brown, Esq., and the Hon Messrs. J. M. Ashley, John Hutchins, James Lane, and many others. Resolutions to support the Administration, &c., were unanimously adopted. The attendance was large.

The official statement of losses in the late battles at Chancellorsville is as follows: Killed 1,989; wounded 6,867. The number reported killed will be slightly varied when the list is collated with the list of exchanged prisoners received from Richmond.—Between 1,700 and 1,860 of the wounded were but slightly injured, and were not disabled or off duty for a single day.

On Friday, the Baptist Missionary Union, in session at Cleveland, Ohio, adopted a series of resolutions, characterizing the war as just and holy declaring their belief that the authors of the Rebellion have inflicted the death-blow to Slavery in the District of Columbia and the Rebel States, believing the war to be completely successful, exhorting the Union to sustain the Administration by its prayers, influence and personal sacrifices.

The New York Herald states that a match for a prize fight has been agreed upon between Tom Hyer and Joe Coburn for $1,000 a side, to come off within six months; also that part of $1,000 forfeit money is deposited, and the balance will be put up on Monday.

A large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held at Old Point Va., on Friday last. Speeches were made by Gov. Pierpont and Hon. Joseph Segar.

From Galveston we learn that not only are the fortifications at and near that point being rapidly increased in number and strength, but that the entrance to the harbor has been obstructed. Some of the forts are said to be iron-clad, and a new iron-clad ram, the "Bayou City," has been added to their navy. The Harriet Lane still remains beyond the range of our guns.

WHAT HOOKER IS DOING.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says: It is understood that General Hooker is not lying idle for nothing. The country will hear from him again sooner than is expected, and the enemy will probably have enough to do on the south side of the Rappahannock during the month of June.

☞Gen Schurz has filed a request to the War Department to publish his report of the battle of Chancellorsville as an answer to insinuations against him contained in unofficial correspondence. He considers the fault lies with his corps commander.

THREATENED RAID OF STUART.—Friday night's Washington Star says: Telegrams received here to-day state that Stuart is believed to be massing a heavy force of cavalry at Culpeper Court House, for a raid within our lines. The impression, however, is based, so far, on rumors only.

CINCINNATI, May 24.—Wm. G Crippen, for nineteen years connected with the Daily Times, widely known as Invisible Green, died last night.

Vallandigham arrived at Louisville yesterday morning. The boat arrived too late for the Nashville train, and anchored in the stream all day.

☞The Knoxville (Tenn.) Register contains a long list of advertisements for the sale of real estate and other property, belonging to loyal citizens of the United States. It has been confiscated by the rebels, and is being sold for the benefit of the rebel government. Yet some of our Northern friends are very tender upon the subject of confiscating the property of the rebels.

☞The Poles are reported to have defeated the Russians with great slaughter at Wark, a few miles south of Warsaw.

MARRIED—On the 19th inst., by Rev. John Brown, of Freedom, Mr. MORRISON TEPOLE to Miss MARGARET BARTO.

DIED—On Wednesday, the 20th inst., MARGARET ANN, wife of George C Bradshaw, Esq., County Treasurer of this county, in the 27th year of her age.

The circumstances attending this event were peculiarly sad and affective. Her husband had been summoned to attend Court, in Washington, Pa., and left home for that purpose on Monday morning, leaving her with an infant four days old, under the positive assurance, as all supposed, that she was doing well and would soon be entirely recovered. On the evening of that same day there was observed a change for the worse. Mr. Bradshaw was telegraphed for on Tuesday, but failed to reach home until Wednesday evening, about an hour after she breathed her last. There was evidently something Providential in his detention. The news fell upon his ear like a thunderclap from a clear sky, when he reached the railroad station at home. The iron entered his soul; he was crushed beneath the blow, and bowed his head in grief and anguish. None but those that have been similarly afflicted can appreciate his deep distress. His loved wife snatched from his embrace without even a farewell, an infant of a few days deprived of a mother's love and care, and three other little ones worse orphaned just when they most needed a mother's affection, the sympathy, the mother's influence and the bright, christian example of a pious mother. And this so suddenly, in an hour that no thought not, and blasting bright hopes, decaying fond plans, and crushing hearts in agony. Truly God works mysteriously. But He does all things well, and this dispensation so dark, so sorrowful, is only an exhibition of His love. For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth." It affords matter of great consolation to weeping friends to know that for her "to die" was "gain."

Over seven years ago she united with the Presbyterian Church O. S. under the pastoral care of Rev. M. Critchlow, in New Brighton. He whole life, her daily walk and conversation, ever since, has been but an unvarying exemplification of the power and beauty of the Gospel. She was consistent. She witnessed a constantly a good profession. Her experience, as she drew near the "dark valley," confirmed the life. There were no raptures, no victorious shouts, but a calm, sweet trust, betokening that her mind was stayed on God. She trusted all—the absent husband, the dear children, her own soul, in the hands of Jesus. Her last words were, "sweet, sweet," spoken seemingly, as her gaze caught sight of some beauteous vision, invisible to mortal eyes. Her last appreciation of anything earthly, so far as could be known, was of those beautiful words whispered, by a friend, into her ear

"Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there."

And so she departed, crowning years of devotion to her Master's cause, by a sweet and touching confidence in her Lord, to join the thing that forever hymn His praise in the world of light and glory. She deprived of the care and attention of her loved partner, for whom she cherished to the last a deep and pure affection, she was surrounded by kind and dear friends—a mother and mother in law, a sister and sister in law, an aunt and many neighbors who were most assiduous in the kind offices on her behalf. But it availed not. "The call, come up higher," came to her, and thither has gone. O! that we, who mourn her absence, may "be also ready."

Beaver, May 25th, '63.

DIED—On the 15th day of May, 1863, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. John Stiles, of Rochester, Mrs. DELILAH POLLOCK, aged 68

MORTALITY AMONG WOUNDED—Great complaint is made of the mortality among the rebel wounded in Richmond and at Fredericksburg.—The reason assigned is scarcity of medical supplies and inattention of the medical officers.

TO

PHYSICIANS & DRUGGISTS.

THE undersigned would inform Physicians and Druggists that, owing to an increasing demand, he is now prepared to manufacture on a larger scale than heretofore all articles of the Pharmacopœia. These will be of the strength and quality as dispensed in the Prescription Department of my store, and will be found superior in strength to most in market. I guarantee them to be of the proper strength and purity.

Some preparations offered are new, but will be made official in the new Pharmacopœia soon to be issued, and will be found to be valuable remedies.

Any information as regards their strength, uses and qualities will be sent to those desiring it.

I would advise Physicians who have been disappointed in the effect of any remedy, to try those of my manufacture.

They include—

Concentrated Extract of Colocynth,

Fluid Extracts of Dandelion, Buchu, Ergot, Gentian, Lipulin, Valerian, Wild Cherry Bark, and others,

Citrate of Iron and Citrate of Iron and Quinine; very soluble,

Wine of Iron and Wine of Iron and Bark, agreeable; chalybeates,

Syrup of the Hypophosphites,

Cerate of the Extract of Cantharides; a more reliable preparation than the common Cerate,

Solution of Cerium; useful in obstinate vomiting,

Elixir of Valerianate of Ammonia; a valuable remedy for nervous or sick headache, and a nervous stimulant and antacid in indigestion,

Solution of Bi-meconate of Morphia; same strength as Laudanum and more agreeable in use, Pyrophosphate of Iron; soluble.

Pure Chemicals, together with all rare and fine chemicals and other medicinal articles, furnished in any quantities.

Am prepared to make chemical examinations of Ores, Drugs, Oils, Waters, &c.

The Eye.

DR. J. R. SPEER, 190 Penn st., Pittsburg, continues to devote special attention, as he has done for the last twenty-five years, to the diseases, deformities and defects of this important organ.

In reply to frequent inquiries of correspondents, it may be stated that, amongst the CURABLE diseases of the eye are Cataract, where the pupil is of a milky color, instead of black, as in the healthy eye; Opthalmia, Pterygium, Opacities and Films from recent inflammation, Nervous Sensibility of the Optic Nerve, Strabismus, or Crooked Eyes, Inversion of the Eye-lids, Fistula, Lachrymalis.

Among the incurable are Amaurosis, or complete paralysis of the optic nerve, where no light is visible, Opacities and Films from chronic inflammation; all cases in which the ball of the eye is lessened or altered in form by disease of injuries.

Defects of Vision, as along or short sightedness, may generally be relieved or cured by properly adjusted glasses.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS.

The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and limbs, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

Dr Cheeseman's Pills

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to a PREMATURE GRAVE. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular, and whenever an obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

are the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all classes they are invaluable, inducing with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box—the Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor. Dr. Smith of Bridgewater sole agent for this County.

"VANITY FAIR."

"This is the first really clever comic and satirical journal we have had in America—and really clever it is. It is both sharp and good-tempered, and not afraid to say that its soul is its own—which shows that it has a soul. Our readers will be glad to know where they can find native fun that has something better in it than mere patois."—Atlantic Monthly.

"This paper is excellent. . . . Remarkable for originality."—N. Y. Traveller.

"VANITY FAIR is conducted by a vivacious, witty and intelligent corps of journalists."—Litchfield (Conn.) Enquirer.

"Will wield as potent an influence as that of the London Punch."—Boston Traveller.

"Whosoever finds himself laughing at the wit of VANITY FAIR, and does not return a quid pro quo, is fit for treason, and spoils."—N. Y. Crayon.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The very marked and flattering success which has thus far attended the publication of "VANITY FAIR,"

Enables the publisher to announce that with the commencement of the Second Volume, issued this day, 30th June, New Features, both Literary and Artistic, will be introduced, which will increase the value and interest of the paper, and fully maintain the proud position unanimously accorded to it, as the leading

Office of JAY COOKE,

SUBSCRIPTION AGENT,

At JAY COOKE & CO., Bankers,

140 SOUTH THIRD STREET,

Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1862.

THE undersigned, having been appointed SUBSRIPTION AGENT by the Secretary of the Treasury, is now prepared to furnish, at once, the

of the United States, designated as "Five-Twenties," redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, after five years, and authorized by Act of Congress, approved February 25, 1862.

The COUPON BONDS are issued in sums of $50, $100 $500, $1000.

The REGISTER BONDS in sums of $50 $100, $500, $1000 and $5000.

Interest at Six per cent. per annum will commence from date of purchase, and is

PAYABLE IN GOLD,

Semi-Annually, which is equal, at the present premium on gold, to about EIGHT PER CENT. PER ANNUM.

Farmers, Merchants, Mechanics, Capitalists, and all who have any money to invest, should know and remember that these Bonds are, in effect, a FIRST MORTGAGE upon all Railroads, Canals, Bank Stocks and Securities, and the immense products of all the Manufactures, &c., &c., in the country: and the full and ample provision made for the payment of the interest and liquidation of principal, by Customs Duties, Excise Stamps and Internal Revenue, serves to make these Bonds the Best, Most Available and Most Popular Investment in the Market.

Subscriptions received at PAR in Legal Tender Notes, or notes and checks of banks at par in Philadelphia. Subscribers by mail will receive prompt attention, and every facility and explanation will be afforded on application at this office.

A full supply of Bonds will be kept on hand for immediate delivery.

GERMANTOWN TELEGRAPH.

A Family and an Agricultural Journal,

DEVOTED TO

CHOICE LITERATURE,

INCLUDING

Poetry, Novelettes, Tales,

AND MORAL AND ENTERTAINING READING GENERALLY.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

One copy, one year, $2; one copy, three years, $5,00; three copies, one year, $5,00; Five Copies, One Year, $8,00; Ten Copies, One Year, $15,00; Twenty Copies, One Year, $28,00.

☞ Subscription not paid within the year, $2,50.

☞ A Club of five subscribers, at $8, will entitle the person getting it up to a copy for six months; a Club of ten or more, to a copy for one year. All Club subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for, unless re-ordered.

☞ No order will receive attention unless accomplished with the cash.

☞ Specimen numbers sent to applicants.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases,

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body, will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at graet expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to.

CRITTENDEN'S PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,

N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The system of Instruction is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner, they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous, and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

MARRIAGE.

ITS loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys; MANHOOD, how lost, how restored: the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermaterrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.

Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, 415 Spruce st., above Fourth, Philadelphia.

☞ Afflicted and Unfortunate, no matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious Quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's book, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

DR. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publication, at his office, 416 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Periodical Stores. If they cannot, send to us for the DENTAL TREASURY, Price, ONE DOLLAR, which contains them.

NOW,

ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidences that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyne Daily Times says: We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success lies with the fact that his articles are proceeds what they are represented to be, as we can testify from the long use.

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Pooder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth.

Dr. Hurd's Tooth ache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss
